CLASS. CHANGED TO: TS S (C)

DDA Memo, 4 Apr 77

Auth: DDA REG. TRAINING

Date: 09 MAR 1978

By: I. SIGNIFICANT ITEMS:

None

II. OTHER ITEMS:

1. We have just received a letter, dated 11 July, from the Armed Forces Staff College allocating two spaces to the Agency for the Twenty-fifth Class, January - June 1959. We will prepare a letter of acknowledgement for your signature.

2. We now have 44 applications for Operations No. 7, only 12 of which are not for JOTs.

In the previous two runnings we had: (1) for Ops #5, a total of 32 DD/P employees, other than JOTs, in a total of 50; and (2) for Ops #6, a total of 14 DD/P employees, other than JOTs, in a total of 27. Based on the requirements for the two previous courses, coupled with the fact that there will be no other running until possibly August 1959, I feel the 12 nominations to be low.

I anticipate that, after the Long Term Schedule is disseminated early next week and it becomes generally known that Ops #7 will be the last offering for the "general public" until a year hence, we will be faced with the problem of a number of additional applications.

3. Last week we reported on the individuals returning from full time external training programs outside the Washington, D. C., area. Listed below are the individuals who have currently departed or are scheduled to depart in the very near future for full time external training:

4. Some quotes of interest from a recent news item:

"A few words spoken by a United States Senator two months ago, altho apparently attracting little notice — save among his immediate audience at graduation ceremonies of the Industrial College of the Armed Forces — nevertheless took root in fertile soil, it was learned today.

"Indeed, his idea is growing with such vigor as to suggest that it may, before long, materialize into one of the most important projects in Government since the dawn of the nuclear-and-space age.

"It was on June 11 that Sen. Henry M. Jackson (D., Wash.), nearing the end of his formal address at the college, suggested the establishment of an "Academy of National Policy," whose purpose would be to rally the nation's learned talents."

"What I visualize," he made clear, "is a rotating group of leaders in the sciences . . . social sciences . . . humanities, including men of broad experience from business, labor, and public affairs. These men would spend a year or two at the Academy."

"The Brookings Institution, learning of the plan, arranged to distribute 100 copies of the speech to experts associated with the organization.

"Both the Rockefeller Foundation and the Carnegie Foundation asked to be supplied with further details."

5. Arrangements have been completed for the attendance of four Agency employees (3 - OC and 1 - FI) at the U. S. Naval Radio Station, Cheltenham, Maryland. This training, although held at a Naval installation, is sponsored by NSA.

additional three months in order to bring his competence to the desired level. This extension would result in the completion date of mid February 1959. We have discussed the matter with FE and advised FSI that the extension is approved.

7. Of the 132 language proficiency test scores received last week, initial review indicates that at least 70 are eligible for awards. Final review of these will have been completed by early next week, at which time, appropriate awards will be authorized.
